AN ADJUSTMENT OF ELECTRIC)

CASE NO. 8509

O R D E R

On July 12, 1982, Newport Steel Corporation, by counsel, filed its Motion for Extension of Time (one week) with respect to the schedule established in the Commission's Amended Order of Procedure entered June 24, 1982. The Motion states that counsel for Newport Steel Corporation was on a one week vacation when the Amended Order of Procedure arrived in his office during the week of June 28, 1982, and by the time he returned there was no opportunity to prepare the initial data requests. The Motion also states that counsel for Newport Steel Corporation is planning to take another vacation the week of July 19, 1982, and that a similar problem will arise as to supplemental requests if the present schedule is adhered to.

The Commission, having considered the Motion and being advised, is of the opinion and finds that no showing of compelling reasons has been advanced to require the modification of the Commission's Order entered June 24, 1982.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED That the Motion of Newport Steel Corporation be, and it hereby is, overruled.

Done at Frankfort, Kentucky, this 23rd day of July 1982.
